

Associate Lawyer – Commercial Litigation

Meridian Law Group is a full-service litigation law firm located prominently in the heart of downtown Vancouver. For over 30 years, the firm has been a cornerstone of the British Columbia legal community with a reputation for quality client service and exceptional advocacy.

We are actively seeking an associate lawyer to join our growing Commercial Litigation group. A portable practice and book of business is an asset. The selected candidates will handle a diverse range of files and must demonstrate a high level of professionalism and integrity.

Responsibilities

- Conduct legal research, analysis, and drafting of pleadings, motions, and other legal documents
- Collaborate with internal teams and clients to develop effective case strategies
- Strong dedication to providing exceptional client service
- Ability to manage a full caseload from initiation to resolution
- Collaborate with other team members to contribute to the firm's growth and uphold its reputation

Qualifications

- Juris Doctor (JD) degree from an accredited law school
- Member in good standing with the Law Society of British Columbia
- 4+ years of experience in litigation
- Exceptional communication and interpersonal skills
- Proven ability to manage a caseload independently while meeting deadlines
- Strong analytical, research, and writing skills

Salary: We offer competitive compensation options, including either a fee split or a salary arrangement. We are committed to tailoring our compensation package to align with your professional goals and needs.
